What are the Pennsylvania Archives?

The 135-volume Pennsylvania Archives set is one of the most valuable research tools for Colonial (1681-1774) and Revolutionary (1775-1783) records. Among the volumes you will find a diverse collection of Colonial, military, land and vital records. Understanding how to access these volumes is a key to success in locating information about an ancestor or event. The complete set of volumes is available in the Special Collections Division on the third floor. It is also available online at <http://www.footnote.com/>.

How do I search the Pennsylvania Archives?

- Use the indexes described in this overview.
- Use Tables 1 and 2 to locate military and other records associated with specific counties. These tables are located in Sections 4 and 5 of this guide.
- Review the Timeline of Pennsylvania History and Evolution of Pennsylvania Counties to gain an understanding of the historical context of the records created during this time period. Both appear in Section 2 of this guide.
- Examine tables of contents to become familiar with the different types of records and their organization. These appear in select volumes as noted and in Section 3 of this guide.
- Consult the list of Additional Resources for further guidance.

How is the collection organized?

The 135 volumes are arranged into the following ten series:

Series	Number of Volumes	When Published
Colonial Records (CR)	16	1838-1853
First Series	12	1852-1856
Second Series	19	1874-1890
Third Series	30	1894-1899
Fourth Series	12	1900-1902
Fifth Series	8	1906
Sixth Series	15	1906-1907
Seventh Series	5	1914
Eighth Series	8	1931-1935
Ninth Series	10	1931-1935

Colonial Records (CR)

Of greater interest to historians than genealogists, the Colonial Records (CR) series contains:

- Minutes of the Provincial Council, 1683-1775 (Vols. 1-10)
- Minutes of the Council (and Committee) of Safety, 1775-1777 (Vols. 10-11)
- Minutes of the Supreme Executive Council, 1777-1790 (Vols. 11-16)

These minutes were printed directly from manuscripts with no apparent editing. A table of contents appears at the beginning of each volume except for volume 7, which has an index at the back. Two additional published indexes are available for this series:

Dunn, Mary, comp. Index to Pennsylvania's Colonial Records Series, Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc., 1992.
Call #929.3748 D923i
This is an every surname index

Hazard, Samuel. General Index to the Colonial records in 16 volumes and to the Pennsylvania Archives in 12 Volumes, Philadelphia, PA: Joseph Severns & Company, 1860.
This is a subject and prominent surname index

First Series

Also of greater interest to historians than genealogists, the First Series contains selected papers from the Secretary of the Commonwealth in chronological order from 1664-1790. Many historical references refer to this series by its title "Pennsylvania Archives". After publication of later series it became known as the First Series. Each volume contains a general index at the back. Also available is the index by Samuel Hazard mentioned above.

Second Series

Of greater interest to genealogists, the Second Series contains records pertaining to:

- The French and Indian War, Revolutionary War and War of 1812
- Marriages
- The Whiskey Insurrection
- The defense of the frontiers
- The Colonies on the Delaware
- French occupation in Western Pennsylvania
- The Establishment at Presqu' Isle
- Provincial Affairs in Pennsylvania
- Boundary disputes between Pennsylvania, Maryland and Connecticut
- Dutch and Swedish Settlements on the Delaware River
- Colonial and Provincial Officers
- Oaths of Allegiances
- Foreigners arriving in Pennsylvania

Many militia rolls in the Second Series are incomplete. However, these were carefully edited, reprinted and indexed in the Fifth and Sixth Series. A complete Table of Contents for the Second Series appears in Section 3 of this guide. Additional tables of contents and indexes are noted in the table below. You can also use Tables 1 and 2 to locate series, volume and page numbers for military and other records associated with specific counties. Remember to check parent counties for the existence of additional records.

Third Series

Highly valuable to genealogists, the Third Series contains:

- Minutes of the Board of Property from 1681 to the late 1700s (Vols. 1-2)
- Old & Proprietary Rights (Vols. 2-3)
- Military fines and revolutionary land grants (Vols. 3-7)
- County Tax Lists from 1765-1791 (Vols. 11-22)
- Muster Rolls of the Navy and Line, Militia and Rangers, 1775-1783, with List of Pensioners, 1818-1832 (Vol. 23)
- Warrantees of land records (Vols. 24-26)

A complete Table of Contents appears in Section 3 of this guide. Additional tables of contents and indexes are noted in the table below. You can also use Tables 1 and 2 to locate series, volume and page numbers for military and other records associated with specific counties. Remember to check parent counties for the existence of additional records.

Fourth Series

Of greater interest to historians than genealogists, the Fourth Series contains biographies, portraits, correspondence, proclamations, addresses and other papers of Pennsylvania's Governors from 1681-1902.

The series is arranged in chronological order. There are Tables of Contents in all but volume 11. General Indexes appear at the end of each volume and a combined General Index appears in volume 12. This index is mostly a subject index but does contain some names, such as the Penn family.

Fifth Series

One of the most used by genealogists, the Fifth Series contains records pertaining to:

- The French and Indian War and Revolutionary War
- Indian Traders
- Ships Registers
- Mediterranean Passes
- Letters of Marque
- Depreciation Pay
- Pension Abstracts
- Enlistments

Many of these records were reprinted from the Second and Third Series with greater accuracy and neatness. A complete Table of Contents appears in Section 3 of this guide. A surname index appears in Volume 15 of the Sixth Series. You can also use Table 1 to locate series, volume and page numbers for military records associated with specific counties. Remember to check parent counties for the existence of additional records.

Sixth Series

The Sixth Series is also one of the most used by genealogists. Its contents are summarized in the table below and a complete Table of Contents appears in Section 3 of this guide. Volumes 1-5 of the Seventh Series contain a complete surname index for the Sixth Series. You can also use Tables 1 and 2 to locate series, volume and page numbers for military and other records associated with specific counties. Remember to check parent counties for the existence of additional records.

Seventh Series

Highly valuable to genealogists, the entire Seventh Series is an index of one million names appearing in Volumes 1-14 of the Sixth Series. It is arranged as follows:

- Vol. 1: A – De
- Vol. 2: De – Hol
- Vol. 3: Hol – Mic
- Vol. 4: Mic – Sh
- Vol. 5: Sha – Z

Surnames from Sternfeldt to Stinor were accidentally omitted from Volume 5 during publication. The index for these names can be found on pages 91-99 in:

Eighth Series

Of greater interest to historians than genealogists, the Eighth Series is a reprint of the "Votes and Proceedings of the House of Representatives of the Province of Pennsylvania, 1682-1776." It is a legislative journal begun by Benjamin Franklin and terminated when the colony became a state in 1776. The Pennsylvania State Library has a microfiche index (PS-264) to this series.

Ninth Series

Also of greater interest to historians than genealogists, The Ninth Series contains a journal of the official actions of Pennsylvania's Governors from 1790-1838. It is a supplement to the Fourth Series and has no published index.

Land and Military Record Notes

The following notes provide some basic information on land and military records. Consult the resources below for further guidance on these and other topics.

Acquiring Land

First title to land in Pennsylvania was usually acquired through a five-step process:

1. Application: a request for a certain amount of land in a particular place;
2. Warrant: a written order to survey, usually restating the amount and location of land requested in the application;
3. Survey: measuring and marking the courses and distances and drawing a tract diagram;
4. Return of Survey: a written restatement of the warrant and survey that verifies payment of the purchase price and all fees;
5. Patent: the final deed passing ownership of a tract of land to its initial purchaser.

Tax List Terminology

- Freeman: Unmarried man over 21
Inmate: Renter
Squatter: Person who owns no land or property and does not appear on the tax list
Unseated: Non-resident landowner
Window Tax: Early form of taxation based upon the number of windowpanes. Tax savings were realized by replacing windows with multiple panes with large single-pane windows.

Militias

Pennsylvania did not have a Militia before the official Pennsylvania Militia Act of 1777. This need was met by groups of local volunteers known as "Associators." Men who refused to join their local volunteer units were known as "Non-Associators". These terms were not used after the passage of the 1777 Militia Act.

All able-bodied males between the ages of 18 and 53 joined the County Militia Companies and Regiments of the counties in which they lived. Militia units were mustered to protect their own localities for a limited period of time. Many militia units were called up to active service during the Revolutionary War.

Continental Line/Pennsylvania Line

Soldiers of the Continental Line were federal troops (enlisted men). Soldiers of the Pennsylvania Line were volunteers.

Pensions

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania granted revolutionary War Pensions to invalid servicemen. Most are listed in the Pennsylvania Archives. Congress did not award federal pensions until long after the war was over. Only veterans of the Continental Line or Continental Navy received these federal pensions.

Depreciation Pay & Land

During the Revolutionary War years, military service pay was often long delayed. Runaway inflation prompted the government to grant additional compensation in the form of interest bearing certificates and land in the western part of the Commonwealth.

Donation Lands

Donation land was granted to members of the Pennsylvania Line for service during the Revolutionary War. Located in the western part of the Commonwealth, the land remained tax-free to soldiers who retained ownership and lived on the land.

Miscellaneous Records

In addition to the records associated with specific counties in Tables 1 and 2, a few miscellaneous records pertain only to certain counties or to Philadelphia City and Liberties. These are listed in the table below. Remember to check parent counties for the existence of additional records.

Timeline of Pennsylvania History

Successful use of the Pennsylvania Archives requires an understanding of major historical events and the evolution of the counties. Some important dates in the history of Pennsylvania are:

Date	Historical Event
1643	Swedish settlers establish a capital near present-day Philadelphia
1655	Dutch Troops capture New Sweden from the Swedes
1664	The English take control of the Pennsylvania region from the Dutch
1681	King Charles II of England grants Pennsylvania region to William Penn
1682	Penn sets up government and establishes Philadelphia. He drafts the Frame of Government (first constitution), which provides for a deputy governor and an elected legislature consisting of a Provincial Council (upper house) and a General Assembly (lower house).
1683	Legislature drafts second Frame of Government to amend the first
1701	Penn writes new constitution called the Charter of Privileges. This constitution made the General Assembly the chief lawmaking body in the colony and relegated the Provincial Council to an advisory role only.
1703	Delaware separated from Pennsylvania
1754-1763	French and Indian War
1763-1767	Survey of Mason-Dixon Line
1768	Pennsylvania buys land from Indians in Fort Stanwix Treaty
1774	First Continental Congress meets in Philadelphia and votes to stop all trade with Great Britain
1775	Revolutionary War begins; Second Continental Congress meets in Philadelphia
July 4, 1776	Congress adopts Declaration of Independence in the Pennsylvania State House (Independence Hall) in Philadelphia
July 9, 1778	Pennsylvania approves Articles of Confederation
1781	Revolutionary War Ends with Peace Treaty at Yorktown
May-Sept. 1787	Constitutional Convention meets in Philadelphia; Pennsylvania becomes second state to ratify on December 12
1788	Thomas Mifflin becomes first Governor under new constitution
1789	Pennsylvania settles boundary line with New York
1790-1800	Philadelphia serves as nation's capital
1792	Erie triangle purchased
1794	Whiskey Rebellion in Western Pennsylvania
1799	Capital transferred from Philadelphia to Lancaster
1812	Capital transferred from Lancaster to Harrisburg.
1812-1814	War of 1812
1838	New state constitution adopted; Pennsylvania Hall in Philadelphia burned
1844	Religious riots of Native American Association at Kensington
1845-1848	Mexican-American War
1852-1854	Birth and death records kept in many counties
July 1863	Battle of Gettysburg (Civil War)
